I. Bachelor program entrance degree requirement Q&A:

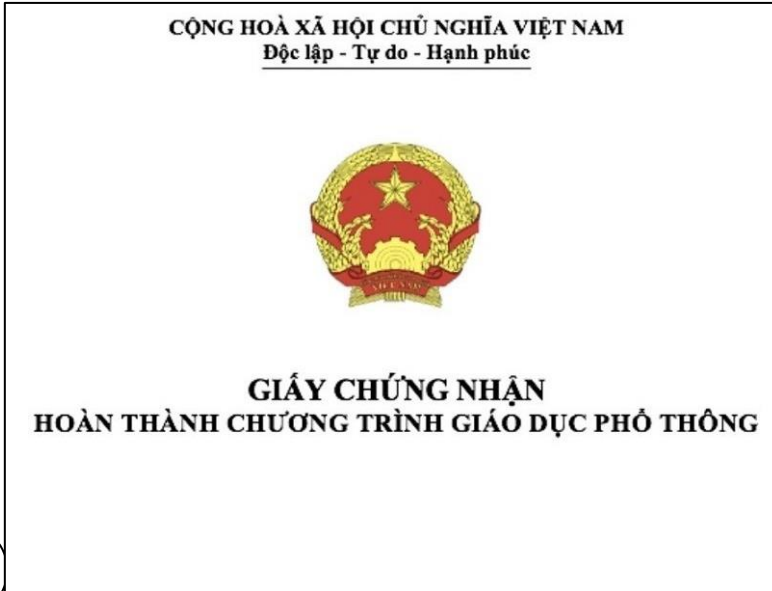

According to Clause 3, Article 45 of the 2019 Education Law of Vietnam:

Students who passed the National High School Examination and were awarded an Upper Secondary Education Graduation Diploma/High School Diploma are allowed to apply for higher education at universities in Vietnam.

Students who chose not to take or did not pass the National High School Examination would be issued a Certificate of High School Completion/Certificate of Upper Secondary Education Completion are not allowed to enroll in the university education program.

Thus, students who participated in and completed the National High School Exam in the period of 2015-2019 and were awarded an Upper Secondary Education Graduation Diploma/High School Diploma can completely enroll in university programs like students with an Upper Secondary Education Graduation Diploma/High School Diploma after completing the High School Graduation Exam from 2020 onwards.
